

Pauline Hanson was right!

Pauline Hanson dared to voice the concerns of ordinary Australians.
And now the Australia First Party speaks up for the future of true blue Australians.

HALT IMMIGRATION

- “The most important issue in this country is that of unemployment and it is an absolute tragedy that 1.5 to 1.9 million young and older Australians are unemployed.”
- “Jobs must be found for Australians before any further immigration!”
- “All immigration must cease immediately so that we can clean up our own backyard and reduce those depressing dole queues. Charity begins at home!”
- “We have a chance for Australia to be the best place in the world, but we won't achieve that with population policies that have no regard for the affect on our environment.”

ABOLISH MULTICULTURALISM

- “History and the rest of the world show us that multiculturalism never works. It stops new citizens from giving this country their full and undivided loyalty.”
- “Abolishing the policy of multiculturalism will save billions of dollars and allow those from ethnic backgrounds to join mainstream Australia, paving the way to a strong, united country.”

STOP ASIANISATION

- “I believe we are in danger of being swamped by Asians.”
- “From 1985 to 1995, 40 per cent of all migrants were from Asian regions and that is simply just too high and must be corrected.”
- “I can invite who I like into my home, but I have no say in who comes into my country. This situation must change.”
- “Mainstream Australia must be allowed to have a say in how this country will look in a hundred years time! We owe this to future generations.”
- “Our men and women have spilt blood defending this homeland of ours and it is up to us now to make sure their sacrifice was not in vain!”

The text of the above paragraphs has been taken from Pauline Hanson's speeches:
10 September 1996, 12 October 1996, 2 December 1996, 11 April 1997.

Was Pauline Hanson right to raise various matters of concern to the Australian people? Yes.
Did Pauline galvanise many people into action and encourage them to speak their minds? Yes.
Was Pauline Hanson perfect? No. Do we agree with every statement she ever made? No.

However, Pauline Hanson was a brave woman who stood up to persecution from the biased media (who are almost totally anti-Nationalist), stood resolute despite attacks by hateful multiculturalists, faced “legal” harassment from anti-patriotic governments, and was jailed by a morally corrupt legal/government system, until freed after a public outcry. We salute her courage.

Australia First

www.australiafirst.net

af@australiafirst.net

P.O. Box 223, Croydon, 3136

Published by the Melbourne branch of Australia First. Join us. Send a donation. Get involved!

References for the leaflet “Pauline Hanson was right!”
These references may be made available to the public upon request

THE TEXT BELOW IS NOT PART OF THE PUBLIC LEAFLET AND IS FOR REFERENCE USE ONLY

Sources:

Helen J. Dodd. Pauline: The Hanson phenomenon. Boolarong Press, Moorooka, Qld. [November 1997]

- 1) 11 April 1997 = Pauline Hanson’s speech at the launch of One Nation Party, Ipswich, 11 April 1997
- 2) 10 October 1996 = Pauline Hanson’s maiden speech to the House of Representatives, 10 October 1996

George J. Merritt. Pauline Hanson: The Truth. St George Publications, Parkholme, SA, 1997.

- 1) 12 October 1996 = Speech at Australian Reform Party (Vic.); Melbourne, Saturday, October 12, 1996
- 2) 2 December 1996 = A reply to my critics; House of Representatives; December 2, 1996

---

“The most important issue in this country is that of unemployment and it is an absolute tragedy that 1.5 to 1.9 million young and older Australians are unemployed.”

12 October 1996 (Merritt, p. 16)

“Jobs must be found for Australians before any further immigration!”

12 October 1996 (Merritt, p. 16)

“All immigration must cease immediately so that we can clean up our own backyard and reduce those depressing dole queues. Charity begins at home!”

12 October 1996 (Merritt, p. 16)

“We have a chance for Australia to be the best place in the world, but... we won't achieve it with population policies that have no regard for the affect on our environment.”

11 April 1997 (Dodd, p. 231)

“History and the rest of the world show us that multiculturalism never works. It stops new citizens from giving this country their full and undivided loyalty.”

2 December 1996 (Merritt, p. 25)

“Abolishing the policy of multiculturalism will save billions of dollars and allow those from ethnic backgrounds to join mainstream Australia, paving the way to a strong, united country.”

10 October 1996 (Dodd, p. 226)

“I believe we are in danger of being swamped by Asians.”

10 October 1996 (Dodd, p. 224)

“From 1985 to 1995, 40 per cent of all migrants were from Asian regions and that is simply just too high and must be corrected.”

12 October 1996 (Merritt, p. 17)

“I can invite who I like into my home, but I have no say in who comes into my country. This situation must change.”

12 October 1996 (Merritt, p. 17)

“Mainstream Australia must be allowed to have a say in how this country will look in a hundred years time! We owe this to future generations.”

12 October 1996 (Merritt, p. 17)

“Our men and women have spilt blood defending this homeland of ours and it is up to us now to make sure their sacrifice was not in vain!”

12 October 1996 (Merritt, p. 18)